Bill,

My thumbs up to him was not his crazy accusation but his following statement of being sorry and working harder to help the gang kids he works with each day. He receives considerable funding from SCS and Grants to do this work. He has worked with us in contacting some street level interventionist.

Besides, I have removed ALL information indicating my employment and has posted a statement that my views are mine alone and not of my employer as stated by the policy.

Harold,

Why would you give a social media "thumbs up" to a ridiculous accusation that Mayor Strickland is behind someone's DV charge?

In addition to the absurdity of the accusation, we should all limit initiating public communications on public safety matters to what the Crime Commission supports! That is our official written policy!

Bill
